Gallantry Medals
V	1	Group of Six: 102414 (Lt) L.J. Rabie Distinguished Flying Cross GVIR 1945; 1939/45 Star; Africa Star; Italy Star; War Medal and Africa Service medal – Impressed 102414 L.J. Rabie. The citation reads as follows: Lieutenant L.J. Rabie (102414) No. 34 (SAAF) Squadron Lt Rabie's first tour was with 12 Squadron in the Norh African Desert where he successfully completed 55 sorties of 140 flying hours. He has been the Leading Wireless Operator since the inception of the Squadron. His keenness throughout his present tour has been an inspiration to the degree of proficiency they have attained is due to a great extent to his enthusiasm for his work. His wealth of experience and the facility with which he imparted his technical knowledge, assisted the Squadron in no mean measure during a particularly difficult period. To complete a tour of operations in less than 3 ½ months is no mean feat for the Leading Wireless Operator of any Squadron, and on his present tour he has visited all the most difficult targets including Poland, The Hermann Goering Works, Austria, the night fighter aerodromes at Szombathely and targets in Hungary, Greece and Yugoslavia. His alertness and vigilance, particularly when danger threatened, was of inestimable value to the remaining members of the crew, particularly on the flights to the Danube and Warsaw when several sightings of enemy aircraft was made. On the raid on Szombathely aerodrome, his alertness and presence of mind when two enemy aircraft tried to position themselves for an attack saved the crew from possible disaster. As they were in the target area, he was back at the beam gun position when he spotted the two enemy fighters. They were not seen by the rear gunner or mid-upper, but Lt Rabie held his fire until they were closing in and he then gave the captain instructions for the correct evasive action which resulted in their making a safe getaway. Air Crew for Warsaw Partisans Rabie, Louis Johannes (DFC) 102414 Lieutenant (Wireless Operator/Air Gunner) attached 34 Squadron SAAF. Operations on 16/17 October in the crew of Lieutenant E.C. de V. Hoffe (MID) SAAF awarded the DFC during a raid on the Marshalling Yards at Szombathely, Hungary on 22 November 1944. He left 34 Squadron on 15 December 1944 on a transfer to 64 Air School at Tempe, Bloemfontein where he remained until his release from full-time service on 02 October 1945.	VF+	R55,000
